

Utah Healthcare Executives

An Independent Chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives
Presents:

“Developing an Environment of Civility and Respect In Healthcare Organizations: Resources to Empower Healthcare Leaders to Identify, Intervene, and Prevent Workplace Bullying, Incivility and Disrespect”

With Featured Panelists

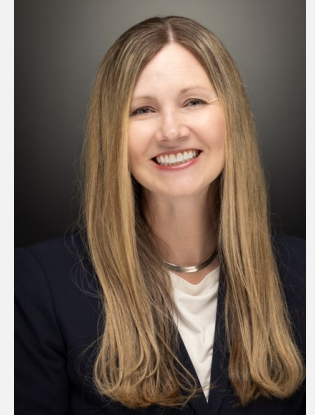

Dianne McAdams-Jones, RN, EdD, CHSE, SFHEA
Professor Department Nursing
Senior Fellow Higher Education
Utah Valley University

Jessica Makin
Program Administrator III
Department of Health and Human Services

Hannah Robbison, MPH, MBA
Pediatric Service Line Director
Hospital-Based Medical Specialties
Primary Children's Hospital,
Intermountain Children's Health

Heather Thiesset, PhD, MPH, AFHEA
Assistant Professor and Program Coordinator of Healthcare Administration
Utah Valley University
Moderator

Date:	Friday, May 10th, 2024	This program has been developed and is presented locally by Utah Healthcare Executives (UHE). The American
Time:	0800-0930 Mountain Time

Location:	Virtual- Zoom	College of Healthcare Executives has awarded 1.5 Face-to-Face (ACHE education) credit hours for this program to participants in Salt Lake City as well as participants in St. George.
------------------	---------------	--

Definition of Credits:

Face to Face Education Credit (Category I): Credit that is earned through ACHE-approved face-to-face chapter panel discussions and programs offered by the national organization.

Qualified Education Credit (Category II): Credit that is earned through programs offered by ACHE, chapters or other qualified sources, whether the programming is face-to-face or distance offerings (webinars, online seminars, self-study courses, etc.).

Registration

RSVP by Wednesday, May 8th to https://account.ache.org/eweb/DynamicPage.aspx?Reg_evt_key=0d41f66d-6dfa-48fa-aab1-4ad9ba91067b&WebCode=EvtRedirectorTL&site=ACHE

